Dear Ms. Best:

This responds to your electronic Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of November 19, 2018, requesting documents, including but not limited to emails, memos, reports, assessments, letters and summaries of meeting and/or phone calls, mentioning or generated in the process of the fulfillment of and compliance with Executive Order 13587, "Structural Reforms to Improve Sharing and Safeguarding of Classified Information on Computer Networks." This request may be limited to materials generated between the date of issue of the Executive Order and January 19, 2017. Your request was received in this office on November 20, 2018.

Since additional time is needed to search for the records, we are unable to comply with the statutory 20-day time limit in processing your request. Therefore, you may consider this delay an administrative denial of your request. You are not required to provide any correspondence regarding this delay as we will continue processing your request. You will receive an additional response upon completion of our search. Your agreement to waive the statutory time limit does not prejudice your right to appeal any releasability decision after it is made.

This denial is made on behalf of Major General Gary W. Johnston, Commanding, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, is the Initial Denial Authority in this matter under the FOIA. You may appeal this decision to the Secretary of the Army. If you wish to file an appeal, you should forward it to this office. Your appeal must be postmarked no later than 90 calendar days from the date of this letter (excepting Saturdays, Sundays and legal public holidays). The mailing address is:
